Nautical Antiques, Green Living And Dahlias In Bloom

By NANCY SCHOEFFLER

August 12, 2010

The Sea And Scrimshaw

Nautically themed antiques are the focus at the fourth annual Newport Antiques Show, which runs through Sunday at St. George's School in Middletown, R.I.

A benefit for the Newport Historical Society and the Boys & Girls Clubs of Newport County, the show features more than 40 dealers of Americana, including paintings, furniture, folk art, jewelry and fine and decorative arts.

In addition, a loan exhibition titled "Tooth And Bone" will feature miniature 18th and 19th century portraits on ivory and American scrimshaw, most with a Newport connection, from the collections of the Newport Historical Society. Stuart Frank, a leading scrimshaw expert, will give a talk about the pieces Saturday from 11 a.m. to noon, including a Q&A session, in the exhibit space. Frank is senior curator of the New Bedford Whaling Museum, director emeritus of the Kendall Whaling Museum and founder/director of the Scrimshaw Forensics Laboratory.
