

THE NEWPORT ANTIQUES SHOW

MAINSHEET

Antiques Show Raises $1 Million

This August marked the fifth anniversary of the Newport Antiques Show. Forty-two of the country's top antique dealers showed their best acquisitions—ranging from furniture, to paintings, to jewelry, along with fine and decorative arts—to nearly 2,500 antiques enthusiasts. Organizers announced that the show raised a cumulative $1 million from sponsorships and ticket sales for its two beneficiaries, The Newport Historical Society and The Boys & Girls Clubs of Newport County.

"Much of the Show's success can be attributed to our dedicated sponsors, exhibitors and party chairs," said Newport Historical Society Executive Director Ruth Taylor. "The energy was incredible this year," added Joanne Hoops, Director of The Boys & Girls Clubs of Newport County. "We offer sincere thanks to our sponsors and founders who have supported this endeavor over the past five years, and to the Show managers and exhibitors who bring history to life for all to enjoy."

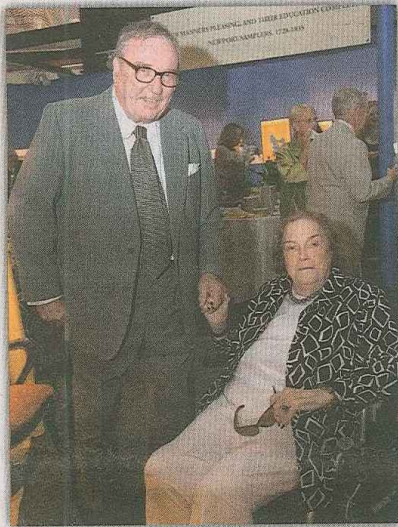

Jessica Hagen-Hill and Diana Bittel

Michael Semenza, Sister Jane Gerety

Ruth Taylor, Anne Hamilton and Norey Cullen

George Herrick and Oatsey Charles

Leslie Grosvner and Scott Shiland

Ladies from Brown Brothers Harriman of Boston, the Gala Preview Party Sponsor

Tory Dumas and Sarah Taylor

Photos by Andrea Hansen

